

Youth Leadership Academy CODE OF CONDUCT

In order for the Youth Leadership Academy to run properly it is necessary to institute a set of regulations, which will be known as the Code of Conduct (CC). We understand that students are children and instructors will be judicious in imposing penalties for violation of the CC. Penalties may include light physical exercise or writing a letter of apology. In severe cases, the child will be expelled. In no case will a child be pushed anywhere close to his or her limit physically or emotionally. Our goal is to provide an academy like experience while still making it fun. Each child and their parent/guardian are required to read and sign the CC as an acknowledgement.

- 1.) No student shall strike, kick, push or otherwise assault another student or instructor.
- 2.) No student shall ridicule or degrade another student or instructor. Making derogatory comments directed at another's race, religion, ethnic background or gender is STRICLY prohibited. Use of obscene, vulgar or profane language will NOT be tolerated.
- 3.) All students must obey all instructions given by an instructor, including guest instructors. Students will answer all instructors and guest speakers and any adults at the Academy with "Yes ma'am/Yes sir, No ma'am/No sir).
- 4.) Our goal is to give a look into a real police academy, all students shall address their instructors by their proper rank. All introductions will be made on the first day.

Also, students are required to report ANY injury IMMEDIATLEY to an instructor as soon as the injury occurs. Students are required to report any violations of the CC IMMEDIATLEY and answer all questions concerning the violation in a truthful manner.

DRESS CODE

Students are required to wear their academy t-shirt that was issued to them on the first day. The shirt must remained tucked into their pants at all times. Issued hats are mandatory every day. The student will keep the uniform clean and neat. Students are not permitted
